This page of musical notation consists of six systems, each with a treble and bass staff. The music is written in a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat) and a common time signature. The notation includes various musical symbols such as notes, rests, and dynamic markings like 'f' and 'p'. The first system shows a complex texture with many beamed notes in the treble and a more rhythmic bass line. The second system continues this texture with some melodic development in the treble. The third system features a more active bass line with many beamed notes. The fourth system shows a continuation of the melodic lines in the treble. The fifth system has a more active bass line with many beamed notes. The sixth system concludes the page with a final cadence in the treble and a sustained bass line.

The musical score is written for piano and consists of six systems of staves. Each system contains a treble staff and a bass staff. The key signature is one flat (B-flat), and the time signature is 3/4. The notation includes various chords, arpeggios, and melodic lines. The final system includes a 'Ped.' marking and a double bar line.

SONG—Sir Roderic & Chorus.

Sua.
Allegro energico.

PIANO

The piano introduction consists of two staves. The right staff is in treble clef with a key signature of one flat (B-flat major/D minor) and a 2/4 time signature. It begins with a half note D4, followed by a series of eighth and sixteenth notes, creating a rhythmic pattern. The left staff is in bass clef and starts with a half note D3, followed by a series of eighth and sixteenth notes. A 'Ped.' (pedal) marking is placed below the left staff after the first measure.

SIR RODERIC.

The first system of the song. The vocal line (Sir Roderic) is on a single staff in treble clef. The piano accompaniment consists of two staves in treble and bass clefs. The lyrics 'When the night wind howls in the' are written under the vocal line. The piano part features a steady eighth-note accompaniment in the right hand and a simpler bass line in the left hand.

The second system of the song. The vocal line continues with the lyrics 'chün-ney crows, and the bat in the moon - light flies, And'. The piano accompaniment continues with the same rhythmic pattern.

The third system of the song. The vocal line continues with the lyrics 'ink - y clouds, like fu - neral shrouds, sail o - ver the mid - night'. The piano accompaniment continues with the same rhythmic pattern.

The fourth system of the song. The vocal line concludes with the lyrics 'skies— When the foot pads quail at the night - bird's wail, and'. The piano accompaniment continues with the same rhythmic pattern.
